About the Presenters

Shirley Perez

Shirley A. Perez is the Executive Director of The Family Support Network of Illinois (FSN). Ms. Perez has twenty-five plus years of advocating and working with individuals and their families with disabilities. She is a business graduate of Metropolitan Business College and Kaplan University. She operated her own business, worked at a Pre-admission Screening Agency where she advocated for and assisted families in locating services by navigating the State system. In conjunction with the City of Chicago, Federal Home Loan Bank and The Illinois Housing Development Authority, she implemented a home-buying program for individuals with developmental and physical disabilities. She has worked as a Special Project Advocate with the Illinois Life Span Project; met with families/guardians to explain the transition process and listen to their concerns as their family members’ transition into the community from State Operated Developmental Centers.

Immediately prior to his duties at the Jacksonville Developmental Center, he was in a senior management position with the Division of Developmental Disabilities.

From 1973-84, he was Executive Director of a progressive, innovative community-based organization providing a variety of services and supports to persons of all ages with developmental/intellectual disabilities.

In earlier years, he was a radio disk jockey and newsman, a school teacher, coach and an executive with the Boy Scouts of America. He is active in church and community activities. He has been part of many mission teams in Haiti and Africa.

Michael is the happily married, father of three and grandfather of four.

David Ogunbode

David Ogunbode, MSW is the Executive Director of Community Service Options, Inc. (CSO). CSO is an independent service coordination agency that provides service coordination, case management and advocacy services to individuals with intellectual/developmental disability for the Division of Developmental Disability of the Illinois Department of Human Services: IDHS.

CSO conducts eligibility determination, referrals, linkages to funding and services, and continuous service monitoring and advocacy for people with developmental disability. CSO also provides case management services to people with traumatic brain injury through the brain injury waiver of the Illinois Department of Rehabilitation Services - DORS. CSO’s service areas are the entirety of the south and the west sides of the City of Chicago except zip code 60644.

With over 22 years of work experience with people with disability, David is an ardent supporter of disability issues.
